

LOCAL BREVITIES.

L. Adler advertises a cottage for rent.

J. T. Lund, locksmith, has a card in this issue.

There will be a meeting of the Beretania Lawn Tennis Club today.

Edward Dowsett returned to Ulupalakua ranch by the Kinau yesterday.

Company G had a business meeting and drill at the drill shed last night.

The friends of Miss Belle Vida will be sorry to learn of that young lady's illness.

The woman's meeting at Kawaiahao Church yesterday afternoon was well attended.

E. Suhr, of H. Hackfield & Co., and wife are in Yokohama. They will return shortly.

The Beretania Tennis Club will hold a meeting at 4 o'clock this afternoon on the club grounds.

The executors of the estate of M. Goldberg, deceased, ask for a settlement of all bills due the estate.

The grounds in front of the Drill Shed are being ploughed up, preparatory to the leveling process.

J. F. Morgan will hold a sale of brakes, wagons and double-seated wagons at 12 o'clock noon today.

Samuel Parker and his daughter, Miss Helen Parker, left on the Kinau for their Mana home yesterday morning.

The postponed annual meeting of the Kohala Sugar Co. will be held at the office of Castle & Cooke on the 27th inst.

Thomas Krouse, of the Arlington Hotel, wishes it stated that he is not going to leave the islands on the S. N. Castle.

Everything is in good condition at the quarantine station. The immigrants will be released on Wednesday next.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of Ewa Plantation will be held at the office of Castle & Cooke, limited, November 30th.

There has been a marked decrease in the number of complaints that parcels block the entrance to the tramways of the city.

Jacinto de Mello, a Portuguese, was adjudged insane in the police court yesterday and sent to the Insane Asylum at Kalaepohaku.

W. Johnson was locked up again for drunkenness last night. This makes the second time within a week. Johnson has been on a perpetual drunk lately.

The theme at the Christian Endeavor meeting tomorrow evening will be, "The duty of loftiness." The lesson will be found in John 15:11, and Psalm 2:1-11.

The baby was washed ashore all right, but the Bulletin did not discover the reason why—it was the ADVERTISER man who supplied the information. Call again.

At a meeting of Company C held last, three new members were elected—one a Portuguese and two Hawaiians. After the meeting the regular drill was held.

Members of the Mounted Reserve and others left for the Waianae mountains yesterday afternoon. A half-dozen or more will join the party today to help round up and shoot goats.

Tomorrow will be the last Sunday in the temporary shed at Kawaiahao. The members of the church have become quite attached to it, and feel just a slight touch of sorrow at vacating it.

At the quarterly meeting of the Strangers' Friend Society, held in Y. M. C. A. Hall yesterday, there were thirteen ladies present. Mrs. Dole was among the number. The reports of the various committees were read.

The policemen were supplied with blue sweaters yesterday morning. These they will be allowed to sport at night only. The cold weather has brought about a demand for such garments and the boys are much pleased over their new acquisition.

The committees appointed at the last meeting of the Flower Mission to prepare for an entertainment on the 26th are hard at work. Every one is enthusiastic over the affair, which will, without doubt, be as pleasant and profitable as the hopes of the most sanguine could wish.

Secretary Corbett of the Y. M. C. A. states that the item in yesterday's Star to the effect that Unitarians are not admitted to membership in the Y. M. C. A. in the United States is not exactly correct. The members of any denomination in religion may join the association but those of the Unitarian Church cannot become voting members.

The Time will be out this morning as usual. The cartoon will be something on a new labor-saving machine recently introduced here. The vote in the dictionary contest will be published in full.

There were twenty men out at football practice yesterday. Plays at bucking the line, tackling and running around the end were made. There will be no practice today, on account of the bicycle road race, but the men will be expected to be in their places every evening next week.
